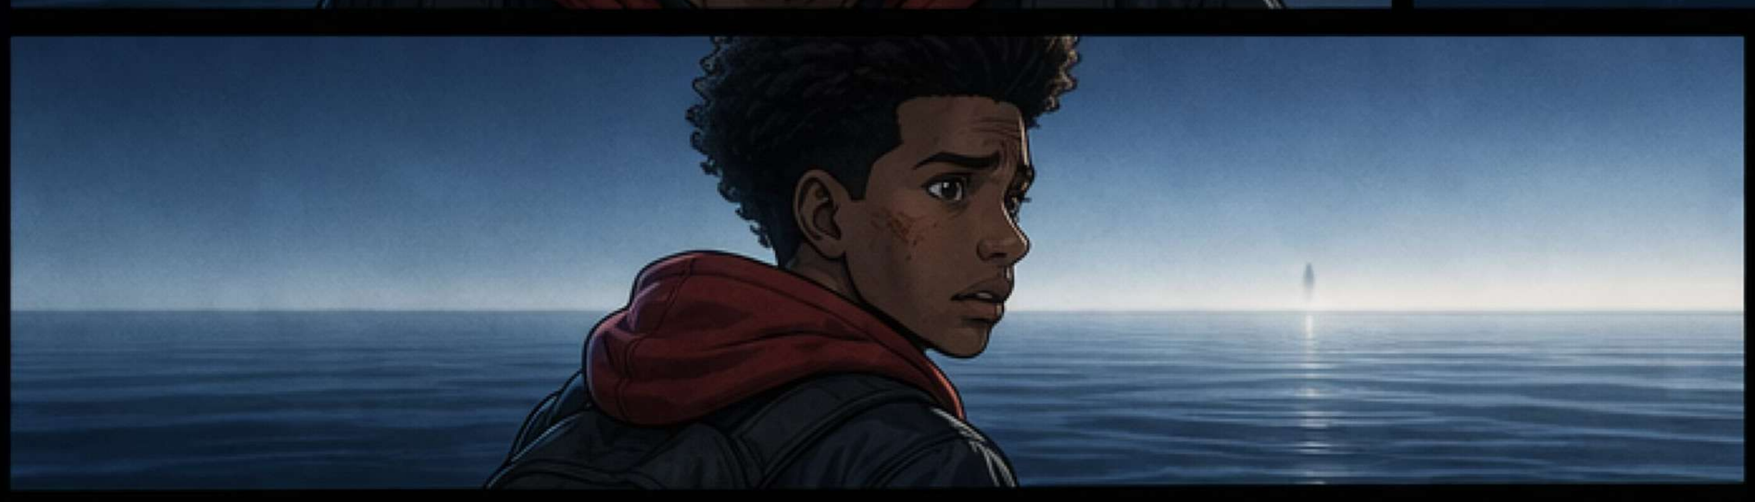
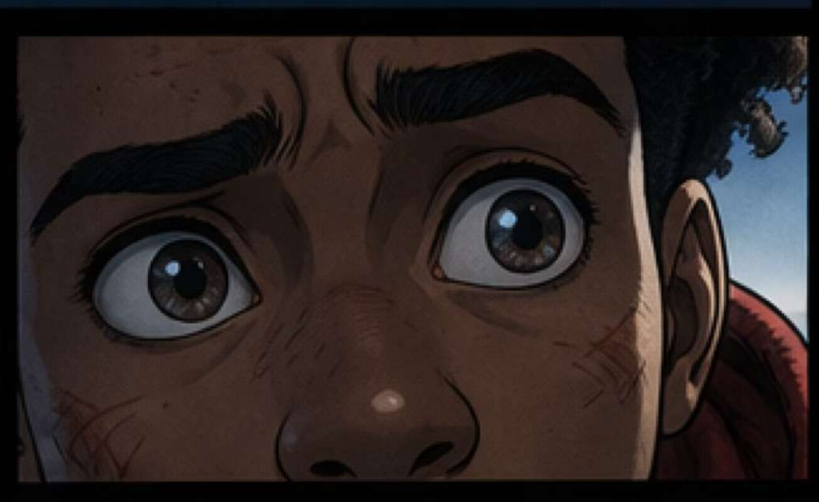
It didn’t stop.

HOTEL



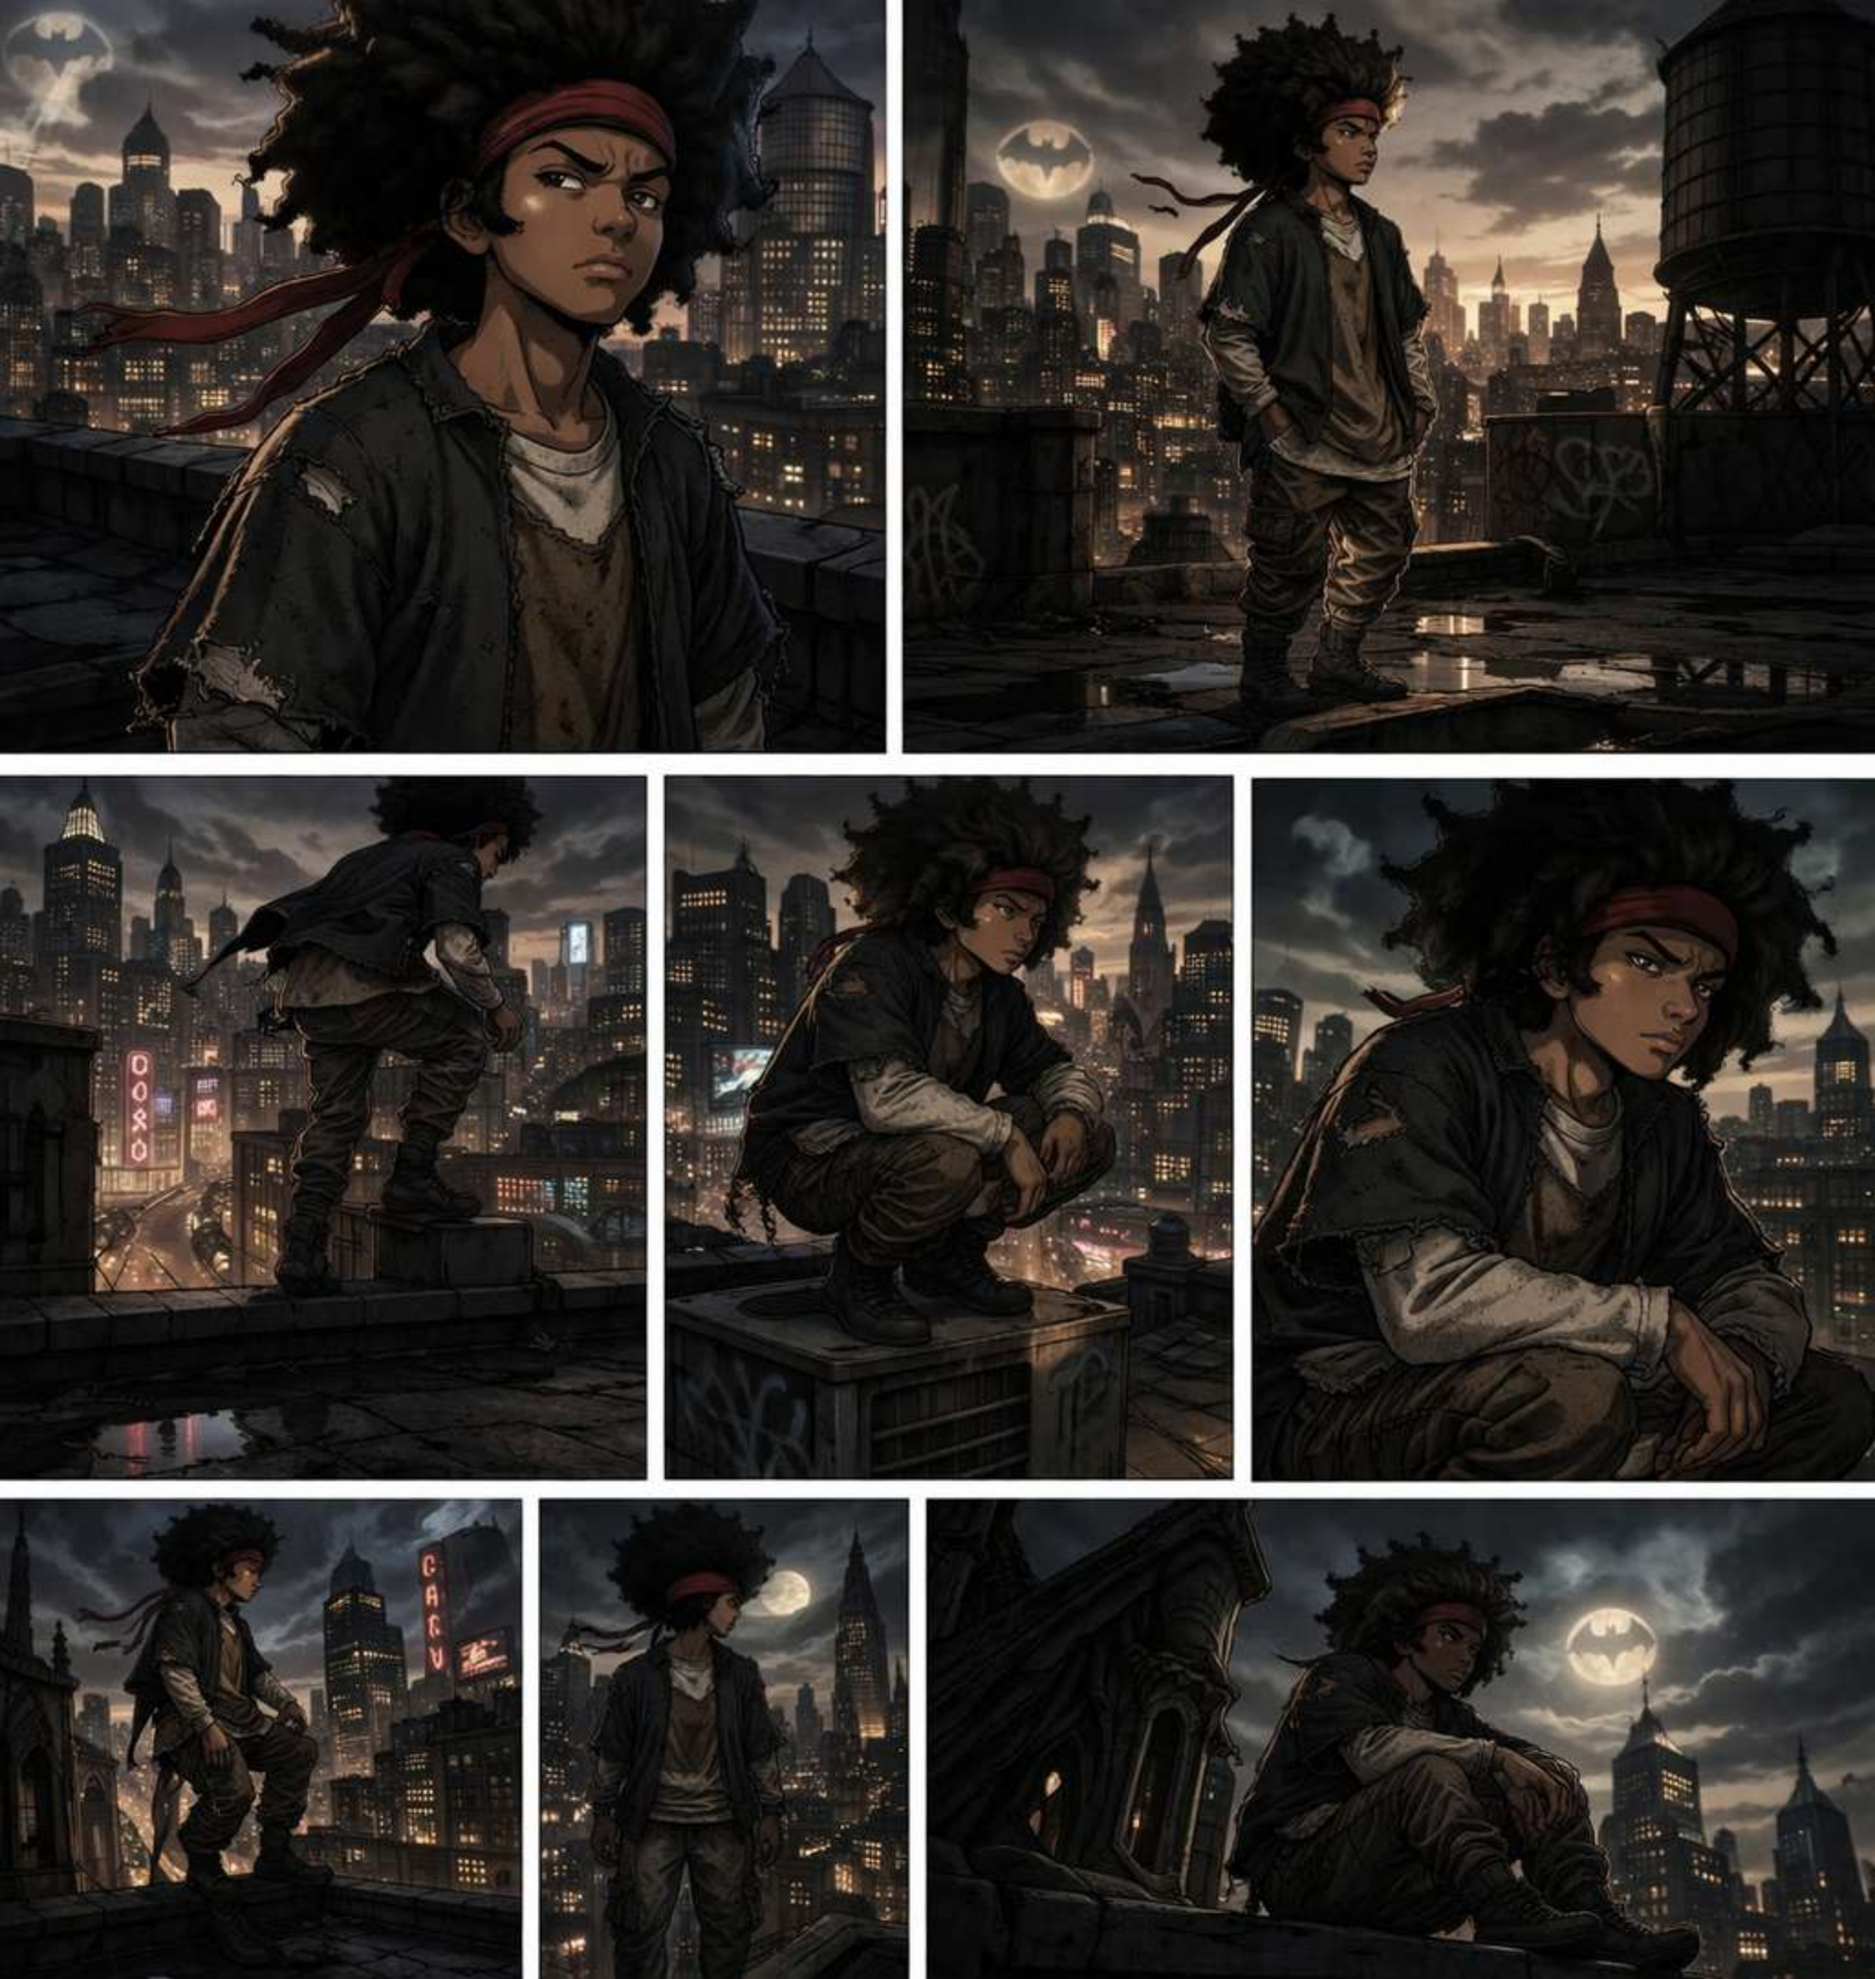


What do I do now.

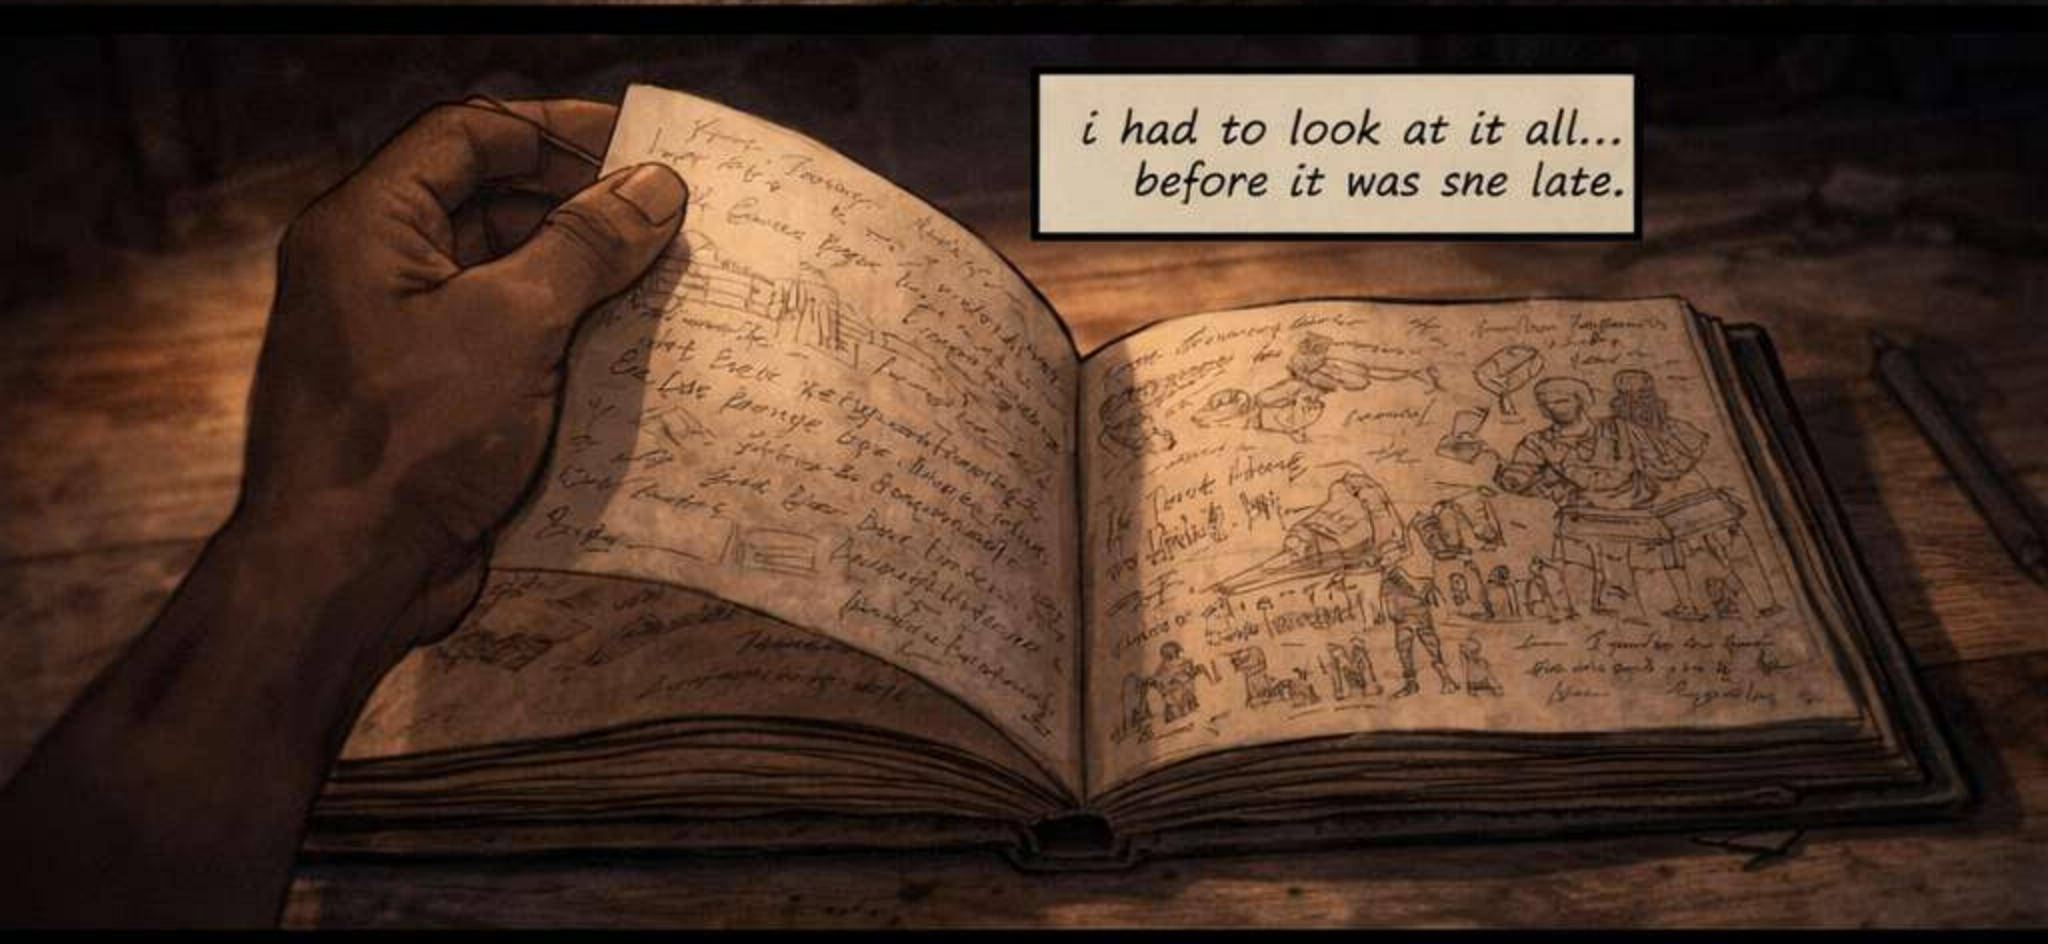
INHALE...

EXHALE...

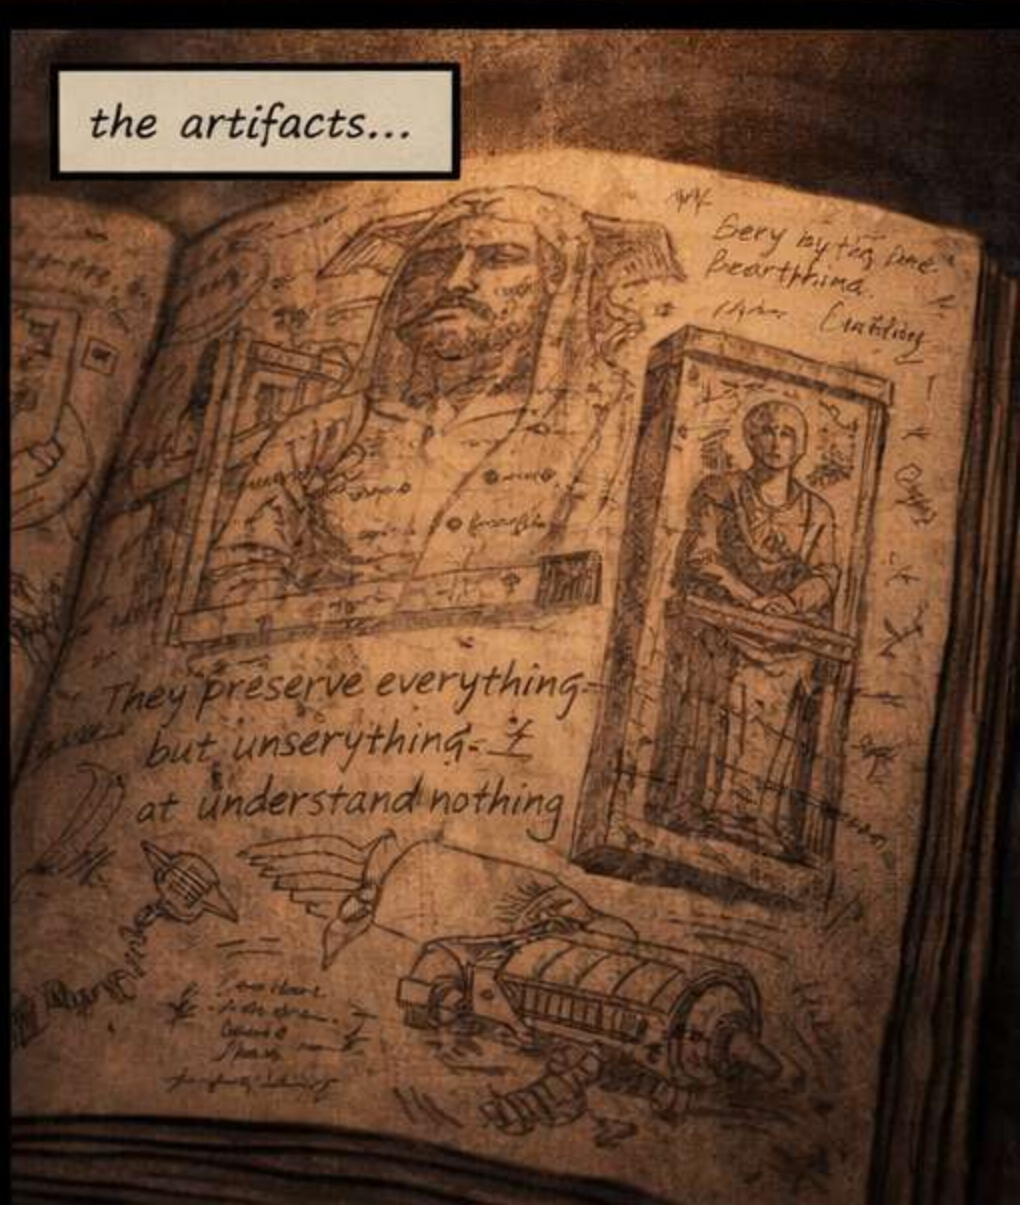
okay.



OOXO
CACV



i had to look at it all...
before it was sne late.



the artifacts...
They preserve everything-
but unserything-
at understand nothing

they preserved everything...

the discoveries...

the museums...

the museums...

the world...

...they don't see it...

i wish...

they could see it...

the way i see it...

maybe then...

they'd stop...

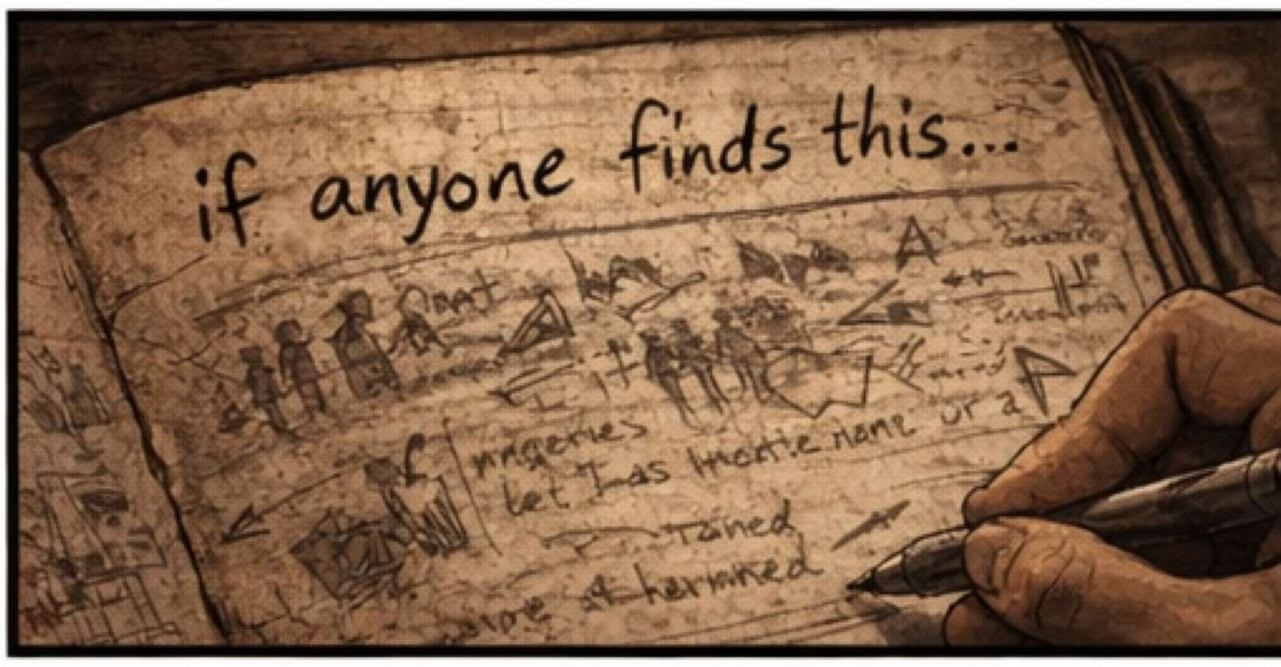
running in circles...

but i can't.

before it was too late...

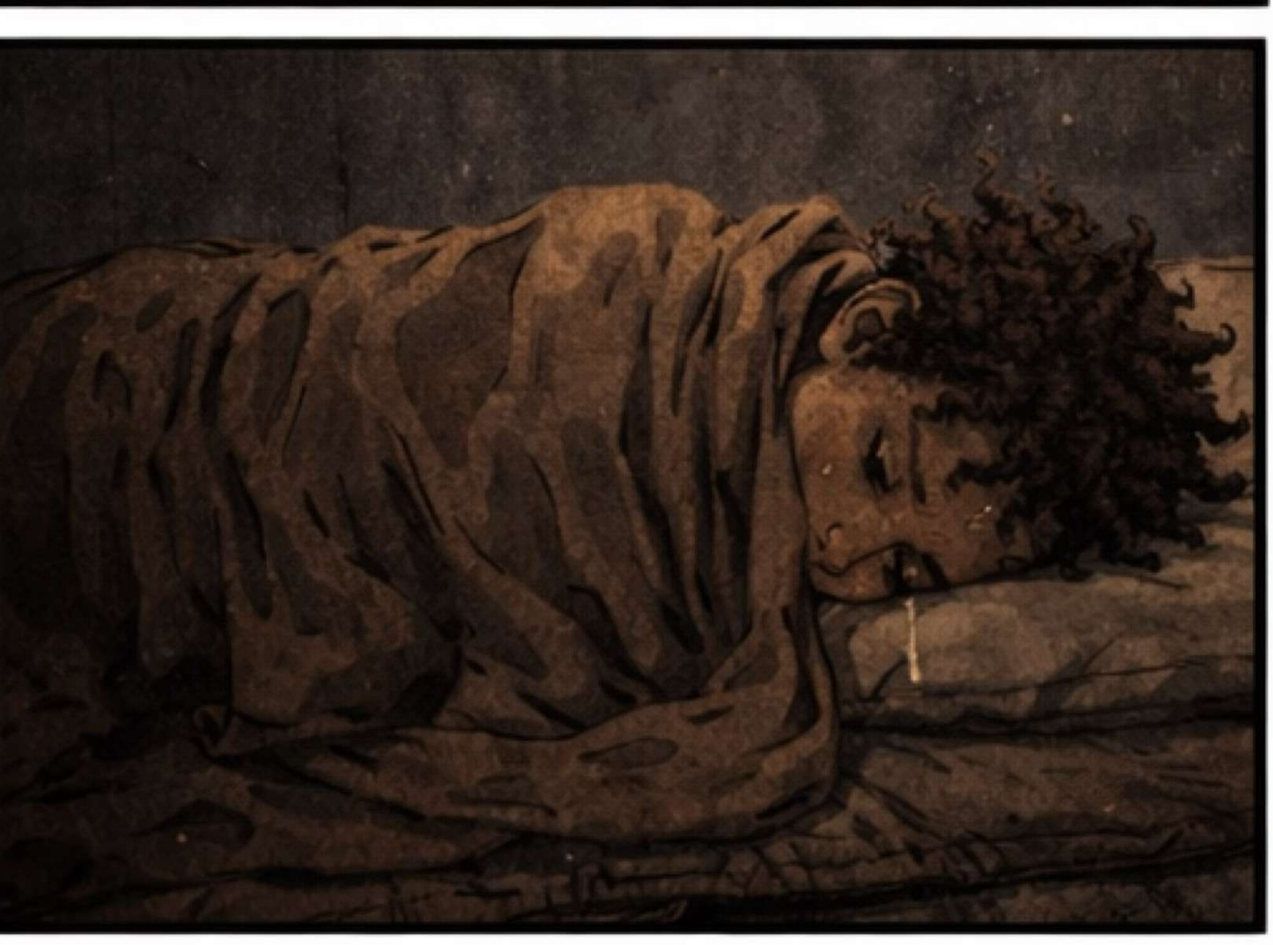
if anyone finds this...

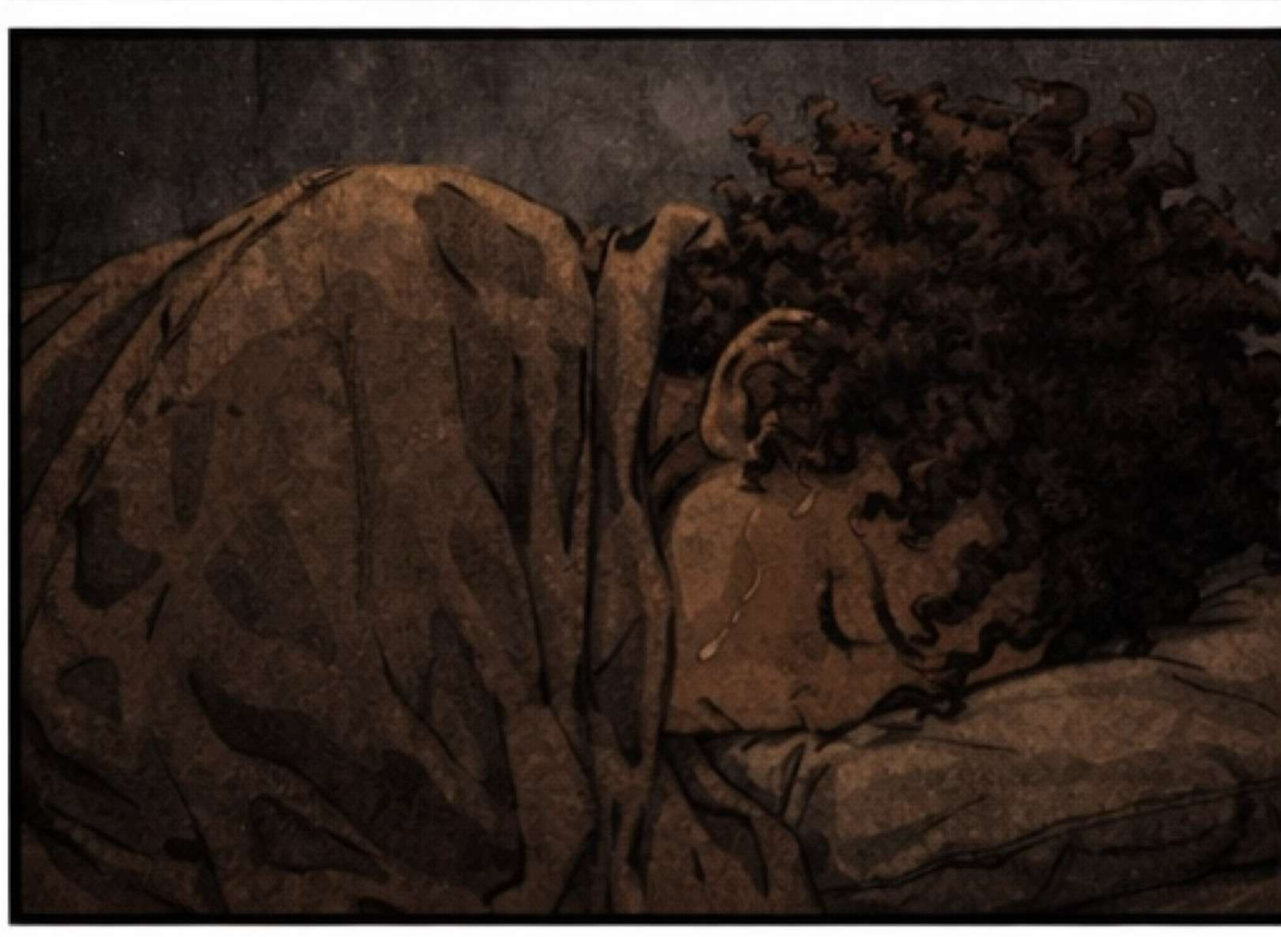
please... look closer.



if anyone finds this...

...i tried.





even after all that hell...

i still think there's
hope for us.
